

NOMBRE COMPLETO _____

6°

VERB TO BE- PERSONAL INFORMATION REVIEW- READING ABOUT ENGLISH NAMES

1 Asking and giving personal information

Match the columns to make a dialogue.

Hi.	I'm from London.
What's your name?	I'm twelve.
Where are you from?	My name's Carl.
How old are you?	Hello.

2 Copy and complete this dialogue.

Hello.
Hi.
.....'s your name?
Simon.
..... are you from?
Liverpool.
..... old are you?
Fourteen.

3 Copy and complete the table.

negative	contraction	interrogative
I am not	.....	Am I?
You .....	You .....	..... you?
.....	He .....	..... ?
She is .....	.....	Is .....
.....	Isn't	..... it ?
We .....	We .....	..... we?
They ....., not	.....	Are .....

Around

the world

4 NAMES

What is your favourite English name?

Is it in the text?

There are thousands of different English names, but some are always popular. John, Stephen, David and Martin are popular first names for boys and Mary, Ann, Elizabeth and Jane are popular for girls. Some common names are very similar in different languages. For example, John in English is Giovanni in Italian, Jean in French and Juan in Spanish.

The most common last name in Britain is Smith (over 7,000,000 people in Britain and 18,000,000 in the United States). In fact, there are nearly 30,000 people called John Smith!

5 Answer the questions.

- 1 What are popular first names for boys?
- 2 What are popular first names for girls?
- 3 What is a common last name in English?